

Family #1 Scenario

Ann Johnson – single mother with 2 school age children. Both children are in elementary school and one of the children has medical condition that requires daily medication and doctor visits every month. The Johnsons rent an apartment in Shrewsbury that does not include heat or hot water. They are waiting for an affordable housing unit to open up in their apartment complex. Ann owns her own car with no car payment.

Ms. Johnson works full time as a nurse's aide. The children head to their grandmother's apartment after school until Ann gets home.
